

Trimmed Hats Were to $7.50 $3.98

The Holiday "Opening" means that the Millinery Department has to give much of its room to "fancy goods." Crowding the trimmed Hats is ruinous—hence tomorrow the reduced price of $3.98 for $5.00 to $7.50 Hats. Second Floor—6 elevators.

1121 Dresses $15.00 Values $12.50 Values $10.00 Values for $3.85

Every one new, on sale for the first time tomorrow morning, in the Economy Basement, 4 seconds by 4 elevators. Precedents are smashed—There can be no precedents to rule this "Economy Basement," because seeming impossibilities are succeeded by greater surprises. The greatest wonder, so far this year, is associated with tomorrow's sale.

A Word Picture

Choice of 1,121 stunning frocks for afternoon wear, equally charming effects for evenings, parties and dances.

Rich-looking styles in velvet combined with satin, also satin messaline and silk or wool poplin are to be found, and other new styles in Moya Ago and Basque. Flare collars add to the beauty of some, crushed girdles or sashes are seen on others. Some skirts have plain or pleated tunics. Real $10 to $15 Dresses at only $3.85 for choice.

Basement Tab'es

This Economy Basement is dotted with Bargain Tables that assure you outer apparel and undergarments at real savings. Real savings mean that the goods offered are reliable as to quality while low in prices. Tomorrow's sale will more than ever demonstrate the truth of this Economy Basement slogan, "The daily visitor to this Basement Floor will save hundreds of dollars annually." Why not get the habit of a daily visit—only 4 seconds, per 4 elevators.

Have You a Boy Of 3 to 18

Arrange to bring him here tomorrow—and invest $2.75 in an Overcoat or Suit worth to $5.00. Or 50c in a Hat worth to $1.75. Come understandingly—prepared to select from "broken lots," but not of stuff made for "a sale."

Tomorrow $4.00 Values $4.50 Values $5.00 Values for $2.75

This New Boys' Shop enjoyed its greatest Saturday—yesterday. Perhaps it was the unusual great demand because of Thanksgiving Day so near—let us hope it was because mothers and their boys knew where to find the most satisfaction.

Anyway—selling was fast—furious at times—and many "broken lots" have developed. A "bunching" of them tomorrow.

For Big Boys

Counted in a hurry last night were 155 Suits and 142 Overcoats for boys of 6 to 18 years. Remember that the lots most in demand first become "broken"—and learn that "bunching" the many creates all sizes in one style or another. It means $5.00 Suits and Overcoats for $2.75—for tomorrow's visitors.

$5 Suits and Overcoats, $2.75
Hats at 50c—some were $1.75

For Little Boys

This new boys' shop is already famous for its Suits and Overcoats for little fellows of 3 to 6 years. English, Russian, and French types, plus superior American tailoring, have won critical mothers. The most attractive styles—those most in demand—will join the "broken" lots tomorrow "bunched" at $2.75 for choice.

At 59c instead of 85c—are Women's Cozily Fleece-lined Suits, in various styles of neck, sleeves and pants. At 50c instead of 75c "Unitee" Fleece Suits for children to 14 years. At 39c instead of 50c are all sizes and styles of Suits for women and for children of all ages to 16 years. Please appreciate that these garments are extra good values at the standard prices, and that the special prices are only during the distribution of these special lots. First floor—the new building.
